

When you are seeking housing assistance and actually calling or meeting with potential landlords and housing providers, it's a good idea to ask the right questions to get maximum information and increase your chances of receiving the housing arrangement that's right for you. We encourage you to print out this document and follow this process:

BUILDING ADDRESS:	BUILDING DESCRIPTION:
NAME OF LANDLORD OR HOUSING PROVIDER:	CONTACT INFO:
Are there any openings for my desired bedroom size and if not, when may they be available?
If there are no current openings, when should I call/inquire about openings again?
What is your selection criteria for new tenants?
Do you work with people who have marks on their background check (if applicable)?
Do you accept rental subsidies (if applicable)?
Is a security deposit required? If so, how much?
How much is the application fee?
Which utilities, if any, are included in the monthly rent?
Are pets allowed and is there a separate security deposit for pets?
